Sweets shop saved just in time for Valentines day!

It's four days till Valentines day, and everyone is buying items often sweet, for those they love. But unfortunately due to the downfall in customers at this little sweets shop on the corner of main st. they are on the verge of going out of business.

Luckily a few members of the community who often go there for the best sweet treats around, are stepping in to take action.

"It's worth it for the sweet rewards" says Martin Lawson one of these heroic few.

The future for this small business is uncertain, but right now "it's looking" up says Sam Pauler owner of Small Town Big Treats
